

“A Witness To The Light”

Learning To Function As A Witness To Jesus

John 1:5-9

Jesus The Evangelist 2

John’s prologue is theological in its content, but historical in its progression. It details Jesus’ pre-existence as “the Word,” but then relates how the Light actually came into the world beginning with the ministry of John the Baptist. Today we consider why “witnessing” is such a vital component of the Christian life, and of God’s kingdom plan for his world. May you learn to quietly, regularly, and confidently witness as God gives you opportunity!

I. The greatest _____ in the world: _____ in _____.

1. John wrote his entire Gospel “that by _____ you may have _____” (John 20:31).
2. We are _____ from God because of our sin. Consider its _____ and _____.
3. The _____ to 1) God’s condemning judgment , 2) the disastrous _____ of sin:

II. A _____ to the _____: essential in establishing any _____ to _____.

1. John 8:18b: the witness of _____ the _____.
2. John 8:14: Jesus the _____ of God, bears witness to _____.
