

- 1) In Matthew 1:21 the angel tells Joseph to “call his name Jesus.” Yet in Matthew 1:23 it states they should “call his name Emmanuel.” Why are there two different names listed?
- 2) Why are the two versions of the Lord’s prayer (Matt. 6:9-13; Luke 11:1-4) so different?
- 3) Please explain how the Sabbath was changed to the first day of the week rather than the seventh day. I do not see how Sunday can be the Sabbath, and see no explanation of any change.
- 4) What would you say to encourage a young person who is interested in serious study of the Bible, yet feels that what is being presented in their church is inadequate?
- 5) What is the significance of the millennium? Why is it a thousand years? I know the Bible says so, but couldn't everything be accomplished in 300, 500 or 777 years? Is it because mankind has never lived a thousand years?
- 6) I often hear people talk about sanctification as a process. Isn't it a one-time event at salvation, like justification? I really cannot seem to find any verses that support it as being a process.
- 7) What portions of Scripture should be our main areas to focus on in these last days?
- 8) How should Christians respond to the Supreme Court’s decision legalizing same-sex marriage?