

Amen to the Curse

Deuteronomy 27:11-26

Main Point: Unless you give a hearty “Amen” to the curse of the law, you will not find salvation in Jesus Christ.

1. “I am not that bad” is our initial response to the law.
2. In condemning unknown sins, the law identifies you as cursed.
3. In condemning imperfect conformity, the law identifies you as cursed.
4. You cannot find peace with God through the law, only curse.
5. You can find salvation through admitting that you deserve God’s curse and trusting in Christ.
6. Give a hearty “Amen” to the curse of the law, because it leads you to faith in Christ.
