Confession of Sin

Almighty God, Your word is living and active, sharper than any double-edged sword, that is pierces even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow and that it is the discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. Father, there is no creature hidden from your sight, but all things are naked and open to the eyes of you to whom we must give account. And so we readily confess to you that we have sinned against you in thought word and deed. We have sinned in what we have done, and we have sin in what we have left undone. We have erected idols in our hearts and bowed down to them. We have misused and dishonored your holy name. We have not hallowed your holy day. We have dishonored parents and others rightfully in authority over us. We have indulged in murderous and hatred thoughts, as well as adulterous lust. We have cheated others out of that which is rightfully theirs. We have bent, warped and even disregarded the truth in a fashion which has hurt others. Our hearts are plagued by jealousy, and envy, and covetousness. Oh Lord who can deliver us from this body of death?

We thank you our God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, that you are compassionate and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in lovingkindness and truth. That you in you mere good pleasure in saving sinners have established that there is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who do not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit
