

I. Suffering becomes a gift when it corrects our faulty theology.

II. Suffering becomes a gift when it purges us of self-righteousness.

III. Suffering becomes a gift when it teaches us to empathize with others.

IV. Suffering becomes a gift when it awakens in us a big vision of God.

V. Suffering becomes a gift when it reminds us of the brevity of life.

VI. Suffering becomes a gift when it give us a platform for ministry.

VII. Suffering becomes a gift when it inspires us to trust and worship.