

Wildwood Baptist Church

June 30, 2013

“The Myths”

Myth #1: There will be no more time.

Revelation 7: 15, 8: 1, 10: 6 (KJV and NIV)

Myth #2: There will be no more sun and moon.

Revelation 21: 23, 22: 5; 1 John 1: 5-7; Isaiah 60: 19-21

Myth #3: There will be no more large bodies of water.

Revelation 21: 1, 22: 1-2

Myth #4: There will be only one gender.

Matthew 22: 30; Galatians 3: 28

Myth #5: Everyone will be thirty-three years old.

“Our DNA is programmed in such a way that, at a particular point, we reach optimal development from a functional perspective. For the most part, it appears that we reach this stage somewhere in our twenties and thirties.” ~ Resurrection by Hank Hanegraaf

Isaiah 11: 6-9

Myth #6: Since we will be perfect we will be able to do anything and everything.

“Everything is gone that ever made Jerusalem, like all cities, torn apart, dangerous, heart-breaking, seamy. You walk the streets in peace now. Small children play unattended in parks. No stranger goes by whom you can’t imagine a fast friend. The city has become what those who loved it always dreamed and what in their dreams she always was. The New Jerusalem. That seems to be the secret of Heaven. The new Chicago, Leningrad, Hiroshima, Beirut. The new bus driver, hot dog man, seamstress, hairdresser. The new you, me, everybody.”

A Little Bit of Heaven by Frederick Buechner

Wildwood Baptist Church

June 30, 2013

“The Myths”

Myth #1: There will be no more time.

Revelation 7: 15, 8: 1, 10: 6 (KJV and NIV)

Myth #2: There will be no more sun and moon.

Revelation 21: 23, 22: 5; 1 John 1: 5-7; Isaiah 60: 19-21

Myth #3: There will be no more large bodies of water.

Revelation 21: 1, 22: 1-2

Myth #4: There will be only one gender.

Matthew 22: 30; Galatians 3: 28

Myth #5: Everyone will be thirty-three years old.

“Our DNA is programmed in such a way that, at a particular point, we reach optimal development from a functional perspective. For the most part, it appears that we reach this stage somewhere in our twenties and thirties.” ~ Resurrection by Hank Hanegraaf

Isaiah 11: 6-9

Myth #6: Since we will be perfect we will be able to do anything and everything.

“Everything is gone that ever made Jerusalem, like all cities, torn apart, dangerous, heart-breaking, seamy. You walk the streets in peace now. Small children play unattended in parks. No stranger goes by whom you can’t imagine a fast friend. The city has become what those who loved it always dreamed and what in their dreams she always was. The New Jerusalem. That seems to be the secret of Heaven. The new Chicago, Leningrad, Hiroshima, Beirut. The new bus driver, hot dog man, seamstress, hairdresser. The new you, me, everybody.”

A Little Bit of Heaven by Frederick Buechner