It is good to sing praises unto our God (Psalm 147:1).

It is bad when the tongue (that organ of praise) is out of tune and jars by murmuring and discontent.

But it is a good thing to be thankful. It is good,
because this is all the creature can do to lift up God's name;
and it is good because it tends to make us good.

The more thankful we are, the more holy.

While we pay this tribute of praise, our stock of grace increases.

In other debts, the more we pay, the less we have;
but the more we pay this debt of thankfulness,
the more grace we have.

Thomas Watson (17th century Puritan)

Offerings are collected on the literature table.

OUR CHURCH

We are a congregation of the Free Church of Scotland (Continuing), which has a presbytery in North America. The Free Church traces its historical roots back to the Protestant Reformation in Scotland, which began in 1560. The same biblical truths and spiritual identity have been maintained to the present day. Our doctrinal standards are the original 17th century version of the Westminster Confession of Faith and Larger and Shorter Catechisms. Further detailed information about our doctrine, worship, government, and practice are available on the book table and in the church library.
