

“Wedding Wrath”

Matthew 22:1-14

In Jesus’ parable the king is a picture of God. The son represents Jesus Christ. The wedding invitation is the invitation to salvation. The refusal to come is man’s rejection of salvation through Jesus Christ.

- I. The _____ in the parable (1-6)
 - A. The _____ of the calling (3a)
 - B. The _____ of the calling (3b)
 - C. The _____ of the calling (4)
 1. A demonstration of God’s _____
 2. A demonstration of God’s _____
 - D. The _____ of the calling (5-6)
 1. A matter of _____
 2. A matter of _____
- II. The _____ in the parable (7)
- III. The _____ in the parable (8-10)
- IV. The _____ in the parable (11-14)

“Wedding Wrath”

Matthew 22:1-14

In Jesus’ parable the king is a picture of God. The son represents Jesus Christ. The wedding invitation is the invitation to salvation. The refusal to come is man’s rejection of salvation through Jesus Christ.

- I. The _____ in the parable (1-6)
 - A. The _____ of the calling (3a)
 - B. The _____ of the calling (3b)
 - C. The _____ of the calling (4)
 1. A demonstration of God’s _____
 2. A demonstration of God’s _____
 - D. The _____ of the calling (5-6)
 1. A matter of _____
 2. A matter of _____
- II. The _____ in the parable (7)
- III. The _____ in the parable (8-10)
- IV. The _____ in the parable (11-14)