

We Rise and Worship

We rise and worship you, our Lord,
With grateful hearts for grace outpoured,
For you are good—O taste and see—
Great God of mercy rich and free.

A chosen son of God on high,
I trembling bow and wonder why
This Sovereign Lord—O taste and see—
In love stooped down and rescued me.

Your Son obeyed the Law for me,
Then died my death upon the tree.
O Jesus Christ, I taste and see
And marvel that you purchased me.

In might, your Spirit drew me in,
My quickened heart from death to win.
O Holy Spirit—taste and see—
My comfort, hope, and surety.

With thankful praise our hearts we give;
By grace alone we serve and live.
O Trinity, we taste and see
Your sovereign goodness full and free.

The Athanasian Creed (selection)

Now this is the universal Christian faith,
that we worship one God in three persons
and three persons in one God,
without confusing the persons
nor dividing the divine being.
For the Father is one person, the Son is another,
and the Holy Spirit is still another;
but there is one God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, all equal in glory and eternal in majesty. Amen
