

The Risk of Teaching

JAMES 3:1-2

Pastor Thomas Overmiller, FBC

WWW.STUDYGODSWORD.COM

Make the mastery of your tongue a top priority.

I. Serving the church as a master teacher is not a role to pursue _____ (3:1a).

A. Think about this – a master teacher receives greater _____ for what he says (3:1b).

B. Then think about this – you _____ find it difficult to say the right things (3:2a).

II. Focus on mastering your _____ rather than pursuing the role of a master teacher (3:2b).

A. This is a never-ending _____ (3:2c).

B. It will equip you to master your whole _____ (3:2d).

QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION

- In what way(s) does a master teacher receive greater scrutiny?
- In what ways can you focus on mastering the things you say with your tongue?
- What is something from this message that catches your attention?

The Risk of Teaching

JAMES 3:1-2

Make the mastery of your tongue a top priority.

I. Serving the church as a master teacher is not a role to pursue _____ (3:1a).

A. Think about this – a master teacher receives greater _____ for what he says (3:1b).

B. Then think about this – you _____ find it difficult to say the right things (3:2a).

II. Focus on mastering your _____ rather than pursuing the role of a master teacher (3:2b).

A. This is a never-ending _____ (3:2c).

B. It will equip you to master your whole _____ (3:2d).

QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION

- In what way(s) does a master teacher receive greater scrutiny?
- In what ways can you focus on mastering the things you say with your tongue?
- What is something from this message that catches your attention?