Bottom Line:

Christians are called to godly living in our communities as we seek to promote biblical truth and values.

1. We should _____ for our government.
1 Timothy 2:1-4

A. Pray for all those in _____ over us. v. 1-2

B. Pray that we may lead _____ lives in our communities (country). v. 2

C. Pray with the Lord's revealed _____ guiding your requests. v. 3

2. We should _____ (honor) our government.
Romans 13:1-6; 1 Peter 2:13-17

EXCEPT: When an _____ authority commands you to disobey your heavenly (higher) authority. (Acts 5:29)

3. We should _____ for our government.
Romans 13:7; Mark 12:14-17; Matthew 17:24-27

4. We should _____ in our government.
1 Peter 2:13-17; Matthew 5:13-16

5. We should _____ our government.
(examples of godly leaders in the Bible)

- Old Testament prophets with many kings.

- John the Baptist with King Herod. (Mark 6:14)

- Paul the Apostle with Kings and rulers. (Acts 9:15-16)

BUT REMEMBER:

God's primary plan to change the world is carried out through building the _____ and that's where our first and foremost commitment should be!
