

“Grace that Works”

The Church’s Calling

Ephesians 2:8-10

God’s Grace can make us :

I. Blessed - “are ye saved” (v. 8-9)

God’s blessing on us is:

- A. Grace (by His) – “For by grace”
- B. Gift (through His) – “it is the gift of God”
- C. Glory (for His) – “lest any man should boast”

II. Beautiful – “For we are” (v. 10)

God’s blessing gives a glimpse of His :

- A. Expression – “we are His workmanship”

Concept of glorifying God = give them a better impression

- B. Expertise - “created”

Making something awesome out of chaos

- C. Expectation – “in Christ Jesus”

God thinks holiness is beautiful – you may or may not agree

III. Beneficial - “good works” (v. 10)

God’s blessing to others through us:

- A. Specifically – “God hath before ordained”
- B. Specially – “that we should”

C. Systematically – “walk in them”

God has not only prepared us for good works when He made us His workmanship, He has also prepared good works for us.

Why does God tell us that He planned these good works ? For our encouragement. It means that we can relax and know that God has planned the course of our Christian service. It means that we can trust Him for His leading.

Conclusion:

Queen Victoria often visited the poor and humble. In one humble cottage, when she asked what she could do for the resident, the happy Christian told her, “There is nothing I need, I am perfectly content.”

“But I wish to do something for you,” she replied.

“Then promise me one thing.”

“I’ll do what I can.”

“Promise you’ll meet me in heaven.”

The queen replied, “I will surely meet you there, on the merit of the blood of the Lord Jesus Christ.”

Sentence Sermon:

“We are God’s Poem that Others will Read in Their time of Need .”

He dismounted to look more closely and found a sparrow lying on its back with its scrawny legs thrust upward. At first he thought the bird was dead, but closer investigation proved it to be very much alive. The man asked the sparrow if he was all right. The sparrow replied, "Yes." The man asked, "What are you doing lying on your back with your legs pointed towards the sky?" The sparrow responded that he had heard a rumor that the sky was falling, and so he was holding his legs up to catch it. The man retorted, "You surely don't think that you're going to hold it up with those two scrawny legs, do you?" The sparrow, with a very solemn look, replied, "One does the best he can."
