

Message Title: Seeking the Awe of God

Theme: The first half of this lesson is a testimony of some believers, who like Moses sought after the glory of God and were changed as the scriptures say from Glory to Glory.

Jesus said, “Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.”, but does this describe our daily lives? If not then something is missing or Jesus didn't mean what we think he meant.

Far too many of us would more likely say we come to church with the cares of life pressing down on us and leave the same way. Oh we feel better for having been in attendance but the burdens are still there as we leave. Can there really be a life like Jesus said, one of light burdens and rest in Him.

Salient Points: What's your reason for coming to church, Reasons vs Excuses, Leaving with all your problems, Choosing the good part, Learning to seek, An audience with your Creator, Multi tasking and Mono tasking, Hope deferred, Leaving impressed, Christian-Christian, When you can't think of your problems, Communication failure, Spiritual feasts, A lack of problems, Four watches, When Moses and Elias appeared, Elias' coming role, Days of Noah, Tears of joy, The two Olive Trees, God responds to our responses.

The speaker would like you to know that all of these messages are in the chronological progression that God revealed them, and even though many may stand alone, they progress through several subjects that build on the previous lessons.

This series of messages titled "Our Timeless Creator" (OTC), shift the focus from salvation and service, to understanding God. How He who needs nothing, benefits from creating the human race. It started in 2007 when God brought me to Psalm 50:15 three times following the miraculous healing of my dying wife. It reads, "And call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me". Following this I prayed fervently. "LORD, show me how to glorify you and I will do the best I can".

The speaker had become a new creature, (2 Corinthians 5:17) on May 20 1973. At that moment the reality of GOD's existence and the direct connection to the Bible became miraculously clear. Overwhelmed with excitement he began telling everyone who had a few moments to listen, what he had found, like a man who had found a cure for a terminal illness, which everyone had. His excitement and enthusiasm continued for well over a year, even when many said, "you'll get over it." Slowly his efforts began to focus on responsibility and all the how-tos of service. As the excitement faded it was replaced with frustration. He had said many times "the most frustrating thing in life is, knowing what GOD could do and watch him not do it". In 2005 GOD began a work as described in Job 5:17-18, that changed everything. He says," it was much like when I first became a child of God all over again".
