

“Peace And Presence”
2 Thess. 3:16-18

Introduction:

Proposition: The prophet Isaiah declared “There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked” (Isaiah 57:21). And yet peace is available through the person and work of the Prince of Peace, our Lord Jesus Christ. Through Him we can enjoy peace in His holy presence and among His people.

I. The Prince of Peace is also the Lord of Peace

II. Peace (shalom) is the gift from His hand

III. The greater gift is His abiding presence

Conclusion: