QUOTE of the WEEK

This striking likeness of Joseph strongly reminds us of our Master and Lord, that greater Joseph, who is Lord over all the world for the sake of Israel. Peter, in his sermon to the household of Cornelius, said of our Lord that he “went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him.” Exactly what had been said of Joseph. It is wonderful that the same words should describe both Jesus and Joseph, the perfect Saviour and the imperfect patriarch. When you and I are perfected in grace, we shall wear the image of Christ, and that which will describe Christ will also describe us. Those who live with Jesus will be transformed by his fellowship till they become like him. To my mind, it is very beautiful to see the resemblance between the firstborn and the rest of the family, between the great typical man, the Second Adam, and all those men who are quickened into his life, and are one with him.

This having the Lord with us is the inheritance of all the saints; for what is the apostolic benediction in the epistles but a desire that the tribune God may be with us? To the church in Rome Paul saith, “Now the God of peace be with you all.” To the church in Corinth he writes, “The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen.” To the Thessalonians he saith, “The Lord be with you all.” Did not our glorious Lord say, “Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world”? How better could I salute you this morning than in the words of Boaz to the reapers, “The Lord be with you”? What kinder answer could you give me than “The Lord bless thee”? High up upon the mountains which form the back wall of Mentone I happened one day to meet a Quaker, in the usual costume, a warmhearted lover of all who love Jesus. He saluted me, and we found great unity of spirit. On parting, I said, “Friend, the Lord be with thee”; and he answered, “And with thy spirit,” adding, “It is the first bit of the liturgy that I have ever used.” Truly, the oftener we can use it with our hearts the better, for none can object to it. Thus do I say to all of you this day, “The Lord be with you,” and I know that you are responding, “And with thy spirit.” May you find that your desire is granted, by the Holy Spirit’s being with my Spirit that I may speak words which shall refresh your hearts.
