- c. Apologetics, in many ways, is simply a battle over authorities. It involves making plain just where we stand, or better, where we rest, with regard to what we claim. It also involves encouraging our opponents to make plain where they rest their own case. The authority issue is always primary. (Oliphant)
- d. "Augustine recognizes that trusting authority lies at the root of all epistemology." (Fesko)

- b. Matthew 21:23 <sup>23</sup> Now when He came into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people confronted Him as He was teaching, and said, "By what authority are You doing these things? And who gave You this authority?"
- c. Matthew 28:18 <sup>18</sup> And Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth.
- d. John 19:10-11 <sup>10</sup> Then Pilate said to Him, "Are You not speaking to me? Do You not know that I have power to crucify You, and power to release You?" <sup>11</sup> Jesus answered, "You could have no power at all against Me unless it had been given you from above.
