

Is CV Jab Marking People?

I'm heading out to another state with my brother-in-law to bury the cremated remains of my sister and several of his siblings. They are all better off since they are with the Lord. Please pray for our safety as we drive to and from and we'll have updates next week. Presenting these links below is not a tacit endorsement of everything presented or the person presenting them. Dr. Aurelio Peccei of the Club of Rome...advocated that a plague be introduced that would have the same effect as the Black Death of history. 'The cure will be announced as newly developed when, in fact, it has existed from the beginning.' [Behold A Pale Horse, p. 49, 167]

Dr. Robert Malone tells us the CV jab causes the virus to be MORE dangerous. Is that why many who receive the jab come down with CV-19? We all know people who've experienced absolutely no problems, right? We are also aware of thousands who've experienced death or harm from this jab. Based on the "clinical trials" that are ongoing now \(until January of 2023; including 146-page PDF\), do we have any idea who has been given the placebo versus the actual CV experimental injection? We don't and neither do the people getting the jab. It's possible the people who experienced no ill effects at all got the placebo. So with coming "boosters," will there be less placebos used and more actual experimental injections given? Will any increase in side effects or death be blamed on a new "variant"?

Dr. Peter McCullough is back with a new video \(17 minutes\), and he asks some very serious questions and points out indisputable facts. It's worth a listen and then ask yourself the same question he asks: why is it all about the vaccine? Is what's happening ultimately creating "super-bugs" that will decimate the world's population? Natural immunity - he says - is far better than a vaccine, though that is being downplayed. Is it all about "marking" people into a database, ultimately leading to the "mark of the beast"? The CV jab has been weaponized to remove freedoms and rights and still the stakeholders push on.

Jan Markell has penned an interesting article in which she quotes from a recent article in the LA Times, which discussed the growing godlessness in America as a good thing.

The secularization of U.S. society—the waning of religious faith, practice and affiliation—is continuing at a dramatic and historically unprecedented pace. While many may consider such a development as a cause for concern, such a worry is not warranted. This increasing godlessness in America is actually a good thing, to be welcomed and embraced.

Is that not astounding? The LA Times is actually applauding the growing level of godlessness in American society, hyping it as a good thing! They go onto state the reasons why increased godlessness is good.

The organic secularization we are experiencing in the United States is a progressive force for good, one that is associated with improved human rights, more protections for planet Earth, and an increased socio-cultural propensity to make this life as fair and just as we can—in the here and now—rather than in a heavenly reward that fewer and fewer of us believe in.

Notice it's a "progressive force for good." Progressivism is code for Leftism and its agenda to remove rights and freedoms. It does this through social justice and "anti-racism," which too many church leaders today are too willing to embrace and push. Progressivism panders to the "downtrodden" in society, which excludes white people and invariably caters to blacks first and browns next. Terms like "anti-racism," "AntiFa," and other socially exploitative phrases are designed to pit race against race, ultimately creating an underlying hatred of anything white.

This is exactly what Marxism has always done by finding a way to cause and use division between groups as the wedge to foment rage and desire for change. Too many in Congress are going along with this program and even pushing it. We hear a great deal today about the alleged "insurrection" of the Capitol on January 6, 2021. In fact, Congress is holding another one of its sham "investigations" now even though it is very clear that the "witnesses" testifying before Congress are lying and have social accounts where they bashed President Trump and his supporters continually.

Please remember that Speaker of the House, Pelosi, nixed several GOP people from that team of "investigators," preferring instead Republicans in name only (RINO), who, for 30 pieces of silver, were very willing to sell their souls and sell out their constituents. But no one was armed during the January 6 "insurrection" except Capitol Police. There is quite a bit of video evidence that points to Capital Police actually allowing and even inviting protesters into the Capitol building. The one civilian who died was unarmed Ashli Babbitt. The Capital Police officer who died was later said to have suffered a heart attack. There was no evidence he was beaten by protesters. I personally would not have been part of any group entering the Capitol, but that's just me. Those arrested are being scapegoated, imprisoned without a speedy trial and some have been severely beaten by law enforcement, with at least one person having been blinded in one eye. Where is justice? Their rights are not being recognized at all. Yesterday, GOP members from Congress were blocked from visiting detainees. This is what 3rd world countries do.

Yet, in June of 2020, a real insurrection occurred at the White House. There, Molotov cocktails were used and at least 50 Secret Service agents were injured. Some in Congress were egging things on. THAT was the attempted insurrection of our country and what was done to those people participating in that event? All of this tells us that things are severely amiss in the USA and throughout the world. There is no going back to any sense of the previous "normal." In fact, with leaders in Congress warning Americans that if we all don't get vaxxed, we can expect more shutdowns, and the MSM supporting that with it's 24 hour propaganda, we can certainly expect things to worsen in America.

President Biden has now declared that all federal employees must receive the experimental CV-19 injection. This is unconscionable simply because it is an experimental injection with only emergency use authorization being forced on people whether they want it or not. Experts literally have no idea of what any long-term effects could be. Yet, without concern, they are willing to force people to take it in spite of the damage or death that may result from receiving it. They don't care and that is proof enough that this is NOT about our "safety."

Coupled with this, the CDC has announced their intent to retire the PCR tests. They say they are concerned that the test cannot distinguish between the flu and CV. Imagine that. So, for over a year, PCR tests were consistently used (and still are), to determine whether or not people have CV. We were told that the PCR test would determine accurate results even though many doctors (and even the inventor of the PCR test), tried to tell us that the test would only find "viral material" that the majority of people have in their systems at any time. What the CDC also failed to tell us is that this viral material is often dead and/or non-infectious, which is why there were so many testing "positive" with people having absolutely no symptoms at all because they were not actually sick. But we were told those people were "asymptomatic."

We were also warned that because of CV-19, there would likely be no flu season in 2020-2021. True enough, it seems that people who got sick or at least had a PCR test showing a positive, all had CV, not the flu. But now after a year and a half, the CDC is telling us there is concern about the validity of the PCR test and whether or not it can determine if someone has the flu or CV. While the world is hearing continuing conflicting information on CV-19 and everything related to it, globalists and their agents continue pushing toward a fully global totalitarian regime. That is fact, both biblically and practically as we see things unfolding before our eyes. Lies have taken the place of truth. Truth is now the new "hate speech" to be silenced and censored.

Christians cannot afford to ignore what is happening in society. To do so won't make it go away. We cannot pretend that things are fine. It is exceedingly important that in spite of this growing final dictatorship, authentic Christians must realize that we already have absolute and complete victory in Jesus! There is no better truth that we can cling to in today's constantly shifting culture of lies. Do you believe this? Are you courageous in Christ? Do you rest in Him? Do you fear offending Him or are you more afraid of what people can do through government or your job or something else?

Gaining courage to face the world today only happens when we become fully dependent on God's grace, strength and empowerment to overcome the way we think about the situations we face. The battle is really lost or won in our minds, isn't it? It is there we come to terms with reality and begin to understand that what is happening is because God is allowing it. He does so for His purposes and for His glory. We either get on and stay on that train or we rest on our own strength, which is nothing.

The book of Isaiah is remarkable for its continuing theme of God being in control and of His complete victory over all things in this life. Isaiah 44 is one long chapter on just exactly what God will ultimately accomplish throughout the earth. It speaks of the Millennial Kingdom ruled by Jesus Himself. If we are not focusing on His Word, we are afloat on the sea and taken wherever the waves take us.

Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, who formed you from the womb: 'I am the LORD, who made all things, who alone stretched out the heavens, who spread out the earth by myself, who frustrates the signs of liars and makes fools of diviners, who turns wise men back and makes their knowledge foolish... (Isaiah 44:24 NKJV)

Fear God, not man.
