

The Throne of God

There are many different scenes as one moves through each chapter of Revelations. There is one constant theme—the Throne of God. The throne of God was only _____ by two individuals in all of Scripture— _____ and _____. Paul’s account details that he was caught up into the third heaven , however, he was forbidden to speak of what he saw (II Cor. 12.4). Other had the privilege of seeing the third heaven— _____ (Gen. 28.17), _____ (Isa, 6.1), _____ (Ezek. 1 .26), and _____ (Dan. 7.9). Yet, John is authorized by inspiration to give the wonderful description in chapter 4.

An Important Phrase: “_____ _____” (meta tauta) is used several times in the epistle (7.9, 15.5, 18.1, 19.1) each use marks a new beginning. In chapter 4.1, the “after this” marks a change in chronology from what is known to what is to come (1.19).

The first thing John sees is the _____ of God! This throne is the _____ of all the _____ of the book of Revelations. John was amazed and astounded at what he witnessed. He then begins to describe the throne

- _____ to the THRONE— it is a door was opened in heaven.

- _____ of the THRONE— It is in heaven.

- _____ the THRONE— On the throne sits the Worthy One. Two specific stones are used to descript Him.

- _____ the THRONE— There was a emerald-like rainbow.

- _____ of the THRONE— There came _____ and _____ and _____.

- _____ the THRONE— He saw 7 lamps burning, a sea of glass like crystal. These lamps are the “seven Spirits” have been identified (Rev. 1.4, 3.1) and are the fulfilment of _____(11.2), _____(1.13), and _____(4.2) prophecy. The Seven Spirits of God as mentioned in Isaiah.

The “_____of _____” may symbolize the omniscient view of God (Heb. 4.13) . Water most certainly is in each heaven—earth, space (Ps 148.4, Ezk. 1.22) and heaven (Rev. 22.1).

- _____ and _____ the THRONE— There were four beast.

- _____ the THRONE—

_____ (Axios) was used toward Roman Emperors when they marched in a triumphal procession. The throne of God is a declaration of might and sovereignty where the paradise lost might one day become paradise regained!