PASTOR'S PRAYER

Almighty Exalted God, you are indeed good, beautiful and word. You are wise in all your ways and steadfast in your decrees. Lord, thank you for coming to dwell with us, your humanity. Thank you for revealing yourself through your Servant and Son, Jesus Christ. Lord, thank you for knowing us, our sorrows and griefs, and loving us so perfectly. Lord, we confess our wandering hearts and affections this morning. We run after so many passing prospects for love and joy and satisfaction from this world. Lord, you alone are worthy of our affection, or hope, our joy and our worship. Lord, by the power of your mighty right arm and through the working of your Spirit turn our hearts in faith and repentance to revel in your beauty this morning. To see your face be satisfied in your steadfast love that you might receive the worship and exaltation you alone deserve. For it is in the name of the only Suffering Servant, Jesus Christ we pray. Amen & Amen.
