

Let Love Continue
Hebrews 13:1-7
Reading: 1 John 4:7-21

...pray...

Four years ago this summer we studied the NT commands to ... “one another.”

I.e. How does God want us to live together as bros & sis in Christ?

There are about 50 one another texts in the NT, and several are repeats of others.

So when you sift them out into groups, there are about 30 distinct one another commands.

By far, the most repeated and thus perhaps the most important, is the directive to “love one another.”

As in 1John 4:7 – Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God...

But love can be easier to say, and maybe even explain, than it can be to do!

So how do you ...love one another?

Let’ open our NT together to Hebrews 13: 1-7 (focus on vv.1-3)...

It’s true! Our study of Hebrews has drilled down deep into a gold mine of gospel doctrine!

The Christian life is built on what you believe (ch.1-10), but it’s proved by how you live.

And the greatest fruit of real faith in real truth may be love!

Six directives to love the brethren every day in every place.

(Today:)

- 1. Hear the command (v.1)
- 2. Love the stranger (v.2)
- 3. Remember the prisoner (v.3)

(Next week:)

- 4. Honor your marriage (v.4)
- 5. Cultivate contentment (vv.5-6)
- 6. Consider your leaders (v.7)

Hear that leading command again: (v.1) *let love of the brethren continue.

1. Perhaps you've heard that there are three primary Gr terms in the NT referring to love:
  - a. In brief...
    - i. agape – often associated w/ God's love; Christian love.
    - ii. eros – associated with sensual love.
    - iii. phileo – brotherly love
  - b. That third love-word (phileo) forms the backbone of v.1 and the starting point for the rest of these instructions (2-7): phileo → v.1 - philadelphia: "brother love."
    - i. Brotherly love, as an ideal, was greatly respected in the 1st century, including the philosophies of its pagan culture!
      1. But, of course, we would argue that the gospel ratcheted the understanding and the practice of love to entirely new levels, in every understanding of the word!
    - ii. Perhaps love's most important ingredient is unselfishness ("otherness").
      1. Which means love is closely related to humility (= I'm not the center of the universe).
      2. And it means our love for one another is always modeled by God's love for us in sending Son... That relationship is all over the Bible's teachings about love and our love for one another...
      3. 1Jn3:16 – We know love by this, that He laid down His life for us; and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.
      4. 1 Jn 4:10,11 – In this is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

2. Where do you find a love that would lay down its life for someone else...?
  - a. Are you a Christian... (following Jesus by faith in His death & resurrection)? Then the ingredients of brotherly love are already in you!
  - b. Paul wrote (Gal 5:22): the fruit of the Spirit is....love! Love is a part of garden that the Holy Spirit cultivates & grows in the good soil of your new heart!
3. But if love is already a part of my new life, then why this command...? Let brotherly love continue? If the Spirit is already behind it, what's stopping it!
  - a. Because there are always pests & weeds that threaten love's growth...
  - b. The pest that attacks loving humility is pride. The weed that threatens to choke out "otherness" is self-love.
  - c. The basic threat of course is sin. Jesus said (Matt 24:12) – "And because lawlessness is increased, most people's love will grow cold."
4. Then if love can/must be commanded to be continued, there must be ways to encourage its care and feeding. The text/context will help us get started!
  - a. Did you notice how abrupt the change is from 12:29 to 13:1? From our God is consuming fire to let brotherly love continue?
    - i. A holy fear of God is powerful incentive to keeping His commands (12:28 – reverence & awe → acceptable service).
  - b. And then notice that brotherly love is the first command in ch.13's list of instructions. I generally see the first position as a hint that this command informs every command that follows it.
    - i. So love is implemented & strengthened by (2) hospitality and (3) sympathy and (4) purity in relationships and (5,6) contentment and (7) submission.

In other words, we will "continue in love" as we obey the Bible's "one another" commands in the holy fear of God.

Love the stranger (v.2)

1. But love of the brethren is not defined by the membership roll of your congregation (that's simply the right place to start)!
  - a. The next directive is to show hospitality to strangers.
  - b. In fact, the definition of the Gr word here (hospitality) was lit. "love of strangers."
  - c. The instruction is simple: when a Christian from another town comes through our town and needs help (room & board), we help him!

2. Hospitality was a practical and needful expression of love in the 1st century! Inns in the Roman Empire were dirty, dangerous & morally questionable. Roman literature documented the complaints:
  - a. Aristropanes' The Frogs – inn w/ fewest flees?
  - b. Plato's The Laws – wrote of an innkeeper held guests as hostages
  - c. Theophrastus (Theo-frastus) – inns like brothels

3. There are several commands and examples of Christian hospitality in your NT (Paul, Peter, John):
  - a. Consider the Apostle John's commendation of an elder named Gaius (3 Jn 5-7): Beloved, you are acting faithfully in whatever you accomplish for the brethren and esp when they are strangers; and they have testified to your love before the church. You will do well to send them on their way in a manner worthy of God. For they went out for the sake of the Name.
  - b. Over time, the Romans build approx 50K miles of hard-surface roadway! Most for military purposes, but it those highways would serve all manner of traffic.
  - c. The travelers of the NT could be apostles (Paul), their teams & couriers, missionaries (sent out for the sake of the Name), traveling church leaders, or simply Christian travelers on personal business.

- d. While most of the commands to show hospitality are directed to all believers, there is an emphasis on a connection between hospitality and leadership. Elders are to be examples of hospitality.
- i. 1 Tim 3:2 – An overseer, then must be above reproach, the husband of one wife, temperate, prudent, respectable, hospitable, able to teach...
  - ii. Paul will repeat that same elder qualification – hospitality – in his leadership list in Titus 1:8.
  - iii. But most compelling of all are the words of our Lord Jesus (Mt 25:40): “to the extent you did this to the least of one of these brothers of Mine, even to the least of them, you did it to Me.”
4. Admittedly, hospitality has always had its risks. At the very least, the untidy, unhelpful guest who creates more work than they really should! A very early and popular Christian Discipleship Manuel title the Didache (“Teaching”) has some guidelines for dealing with questionable guests:
- a. “Let every apostle who comes to you be received as the Lord. But he shall not remain more than one day; or two days, if there is a need. But if he remains three days, he is a false prophet. And when the apostle goes away, let him take nothing but bread until he lodges. If he asks for money, he is a false prophet.”
  - b. Yet to balance our natural concerns, we read of the intriguing possibility of playing host to an angel: one of God’s couriers!

- c. You ever go into one of those restaurants where they have all these pictures behind the counter of all the celebrities who've eaten a cheeseburger in their diner? Autographs that no one can read....
  - i. How about a selfie with you & the apostle Paul standing in front of your fire-place!?!
  - ii. John MacArthur makes a very helpful observation about the idea of entertaining angels: perhaps the real point here is not that a celestial celebrity sampled your spaghetti, but that you might never know (“unawares”, “w/o knowing it”) just how important your small kindness is in God's Grand Strategy.
- 5. Suffice it to say, this really a practical love-command: loving strangers helps them, can be an evangelistic witness to people watching your life, and just might give an important boost to critical Kingdom advance by helping some courier of the Captain of Our Faith – maybe even that angel! ☺
- 6. OBWT, we might need some of you to implement this command in Sept! We are involved in the upcoming On Mission Celebration. As a part of that, we will be asked to:
  - a. Provide transportation and provide a place to stay for a missionary or two.
  - b. If you can help, I expect you will be a little inconvenienced and a lot blessed! (I'd love to hear from you after the service.)

Jesus said: “I was in prison and you visited Me.” Our writer must certainly remember that command as he pens this one ... read v.3.

1. I’ve told this story so often in the past year that you could probably tell it for me...
  - a. Hebrews was written in mid/late 60s AD (as in Nero, not Elvis...)
  - b. Hebrews’ first audience was a church(s) made up of Jews who had come to Christ. Along with some who were still undecided...or skeptical.
  - c. Christians had been persecuted in the past, including some of these believers. Now, persecution seemed to be growing on Nero’s radar.
  - d. Some of these church-goers were tempted to slide out the back-door of the church and head back to the synagogue. To forsake the gospel for the Torah... The New Covenant for the Law...

2. The command (3) is the next expression of brotherly love. Remember the prisoners...remember the ill-treated.
  - a. So as the storm of persecution draws near, v.3 identifies two categories of brothers & sisters who really need some love – if not now, soon....
    - i. The prisoner & the ill-treated.
      1. Some would be incarcerated for following Christ.
      2. Others (more, I’d assume) would be ill-treated (tormented) for their faith.

ii. And this is really one problem here that cries out for our same response – suffering met by brotherly love:

1. Suffering – spec (here) persecution. Beloved, turning to Christ is not taking the exit-ramp away from suffering.
  - a. In fact, there is no end to biblical evidence that God intentionally, premeditatedly uses suffering to refine & harden your faith (1 Pt 1; Jas 1) and mold you into the image of Christ (Rom 8).
  - b. The only exit-ramp from suffering is the last one to the Celestial City. Beloved, in this life, you will suffer (one or all): emotionally, spiritually, financially, relationally, vocationally, physically, and then...terminally!
2. And when it's your bro/sis' time to suffer, you need to remember them – to put sympathy in action.

3. This fellowship was not a stranger to persecution. Turn w/me to 10:32-35.

- a. Many have been there and done that. Perhaps when Emperor Claudius had run Christians out of Rome almost 20 years earlier.
- b. The result was public humiliation, loss of homes & property, and banishment.
- c. But also sympathy → care from their church family. But that could be dangerous! To visit the prisoner was to be identified with the prisoner as a Christian. Perhaps the next person to be ill-treated would be you...
- d. Despite that, in time the early Church gained a reputation, even among those who hated us, of doing anything to care for our own. Some even sold themselves into slavery to buy the freedom of others.

- e. Brotherly love – sympathy – is not just an emotion. Remembering is more than a picture on the refrigerator.
  - i. 1 Jn 3:17 – But whoever has the world's goods, and sees his brother in need and closes his heart against him, how does the love of God abide in him?

“I was in prison and you visited Me.” Remember the prisoner...the ill-treated.

I want to close by sharing three reasons why brotherly love is so powerful (J. MacArthur):

1. Love identifies us to the world as Christians. That’s because we love one another guided by an example and driven by a power the world doesn’t have.
  - a. Jesus said (John 13:34-35): “A new commandment I give you, that you love one another, even as I have loved you, that you also love one another. By this all men will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another.”
2. Love identifies us to ourselves as Christians. I.e., brotherly love is a source of salvation assurance.
  - a. 1 John 3:14 – We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brethren. He who does not love abides in death.
  - b. You should be able to tell that you now love in a way you didn’t use to love!
3. You brotherly love pleases God. In fact, we’ve already seen that in Hebrews!
  - a. 6:10 - For God is not unjust so as to forget your work and the love which you have shown toward His name, in having ministered and in still ministering to the saints.

Let brotherly love continue – God won’t forget! ...pray...
