

- I. “This mystery is profound”
 - A. The scholarly argument (Genesis 2:24)
 - B. The Bible and natural wisdom teach us about Christ and the Church (Genesis 2:23; Song 6:10; Ephesians 5:22)
 - C. A union that bears fruit (John 15:4; 17:22-23; Colossians 1:27; Galatians 3:28; Isaiah 49:20-23; 54:1-3)

- II. Every Christian is Called to Marriage
 - A. You know the great Mystery of true love (John 17:17, 19; Psalm 49:7-8, 15; 2 Samuel 3:13; 1 Peter 1:18-19; Mark 10:45; Psalm 119:97-99)
 - B. Live out your married life as a Christian

- III. Every Christian is Called to be a Mother or Father
 - A. Marriage and parenthood go together
 - B. We are all called to make disciples
 - C. The dynamics of spiritual parenthood change over time (Galatians 1:18; 2:1; 2 Timothy 2:1-2)
 - D. Above all, pray (Genesis 25:21; James 1:6; Matthew 28:20)

- IV. Every Christian is Called to Build a House
 - A. A place to dwell with the Lord (John 14:2-3)
 - B. The house that Christ is building (1 Corinthians 3:9-10; Proverbs 14:1)
 - C. The one building that will not pass away
 - D. How do we build? (Ephesians 5:19; Acts 2:46; 11:19-20; Romans 15:14; Psalms 118; 126)
 - E. Look at the beauty of God’s house (2 Timothy 2:20; Psalm 27:4; Ephesians 2:20-22; 1 Timothy 3:14-15)

Waefeso 5:31-32

31 Kwa sababu hiyo mtu atamwacha baba yake na mama yake, ataambatana na mkewe na hao wawili watakuwa mwili mmoja.

32 Siri hiyo ni kubwa; ila mimi nanena habari ya Kristo na Kanisa.