Oh, give thanks to the Lord, for He is good!

For His mercy endures forever.

And say, "Save us, O God of our salvation;

Gather us together, and deliver us from the Gentiles,

To give thanks to Your holy name, To triumph in Your praise."

Blessed be the Lord God of Israel From everlasting to everlasting!

And all the people said, "Amen!" and praised the Lord.

WCF Chapter 1. Of the Holy Scripture 1. Although the light of nature, and the works of creation and providence do so far manifest the goodness, wisdom, and power of God, as to leave men inexcusable; yet they are not sufficient to give that knowledge of God, and of his will, which is necessary unto salvation. Therefore it pleased the Lord, at sundry times, and in divers manner, to reveal Himself, and to declare that His will unto His Church; and afterwards, for the better preserving and propagating of the truth, and for the more sure establishment and comfort of the Church against the corruption of the flesh, and the malice of Satan and of the world, to commit the same wholly unto writing: which maketh the Holy Scripture to be most necessary; those former ways of God's revealing His will unto His people being now ceased.

WLC Q. 45. How doth Christ execute the office of a king? A. Christ executeth the office of a king, in calling out of the world a people to himself, and giving them officers, laws, and censures, by which he visibly governs them; in bestowing saving grace upon his elect, rewarding their obedience, and correcting them for their sins, preserving and supporting them under all their temptations and sufferings, restraining and overcoming all their enemies, and powerfully ordering all things for his own glory and their good: and also in taking vengeance on the rest, who know not God, and obey not the gospel.

- I. The King is united with former rebels
- II. The King covenants with his people
- III. The King brings blessing to his people
- IV. The King is insulted by pagans
- V. The King rewards those who serve him
- VI. The King claims and builds a city
- VII. The King is blessed by pagan kings
- VIII. The King is established by God
- IX. The King brings trouble to his people because of his sin
- X. The King prays to God
- XI. The King defeats his enemies
