

*From Sighing to SingingMark 7.31-37*August 22, 2021
Pastor MontgomeryI. The Story: the Sigh that Ends the Silence

1. To be deaf and unable to speak clearly is to live like a _____.
2. With his touch and by spitting, Jesus _____ the man his power.
3. With his sigh and his command, Jesus turned silence into _____.

II. The Record: the Signs of Great Significance

4. Recording the story later, Mark connects it with _____.
5. God ordained this man's pain as a _____ of gospel promises.
6. Like Hebrew, God's plans are always best read _____.

III. The Promise: the Song to End Our Sighing

7. As then, so now: God's promise _____ every sigh in our lives.
8. To keep this promise in focus, we must connect it to the _____.
9. As with Jesus, so with us: every sigh will finally turn to _____.

*From Sighing to SingingMark 7.31-37*August 22, 2021
Pastor MontgomeryI. The Story: the Sigh that Ends the Silence

1. To be deaf and unable to speak clearly is to live like a _____.
2. With his touch and by spitting, Jesus _____ the man his power.
3. With his sigh and his command, Jesus turned silence into _____.

II. The Record: the Signs of Great Significance

4. Recording the story later, Mark connects it with _____.
5. God ordained this man's pain as a _____ of gospel promises.
6. Like Hebrew, God's plans are always best read _____.

III. The Promise: the Song to End Our Sighing

7. As then, so now: God's promise _____ every sigh in our lives.
8. To keep this promise in focus, we must connect it to the _____.
9. As with Jesus, so with us: every sigh will finally turn to _____.