Help me, O Lord my God! Oh, save me according to Your mercy,
That they may know that this is Your hand—That You, Lord, have done it!
Let them curse, but You bless; When they arise, let them be ashamed,
But let Your servant rejoice. Let my accusers be clothed with shame,
And let them cover themselves with their own disgrace as with a mantle.
I will greatly praise the Lord with my mouth; Yes, I will praise Him among the multitude. For He shall stand at the right hand of the poor,
To save him from those who condemn him. Psalm 109:26-31

Larger Catechism Q 45: How doth Christ execute the office of a king? Answer: Christ executeth the office of a king, in calling out of the world a people to himself, and giving them officers, laws, and censures, by which he visibly governs them; in bestowing saving grace upon his elect, rewarding their obedience, and correcting them for their sins, preserving and supporting them under all their temptations and sufferings, restraining and overcoming all their enemies, and powerfully ordering all things for his own glory, and their good; and also in taking vengeance on the rest, who know not God, and obey not the gospel.

- I. The Mediatorial King preserves/supports His people
 - a. Under all their temptations

- II. The Mediatorial King preserves/supports his people
 - a. Under all their sufferings
