

Tools for Disciple Making – Prevailing Prayer

Luke 11:1-13

Pastor Phil Winfield

August 26, 2012

“I’d rather teach one man to pray that teach ten men to preach.”

C. H. Spurgeon

1. Pray Precisely (verses 1-4)
  - a. Consider the Father’s Person – Our Father
  - b. Remember the Father’s Place – In Heaven.
  - c. Revere The Father’s Purity – Hallowed be thy name
  - d. Recognize the Father’s Purpose – The coming of his kingdom; the doing of His will.
  - e. Request The Father’s provision – give us this day our daily bread.
  - f. Rejoice in The Father’s forgiveness – forgive our sins as we forgive others.
  - g. Rely on God’s protection – lead us not into temptation; deliver us from evil.
2. Pray persistently Verses 5-10
  - a. Our Father is our resource when friends have needs
    - i. Our Father is the only resource when our friends have spiritual needs.
    - ii. James 2:15
    - iii. 1 John 3:17-18
  - b. Our Father is the faithful resource for his child that faithfully asks.
    - i. God’s delays are not denials.
    - ii. “You can do more than pray, after you have prayed, but you cannot do more than pray until you have prayed.” John Bunyan said,
3. Pray powerfully – verses 11-13
  - a. A father can give good gifts
  - b. The heavenly Father can give His powerful gift – enablement
    - i. In the church, the holy Spirit makes Witnesses out of Weaklings . Acts 1:8
    - ii. In the church, the Holy Spirit brings Fellowship instead of Factions - Acts 4:32
    - iii. In the Church, the Holy Spirit also produces Growth without Gimmicks. (Acts 4:33)

The power of the Holy Spirit is available to people of prevailing prayer. Will you pray? You already know how.
