Bringing The Ten Commandments Into Your Heart

2 Corinthians 3:1-12; Luke 22:40-47; Exodus 20:1-17

The Voice From The Fire Part 12 of 12

Since the fall all humans face the impulse to abandon God’s law or quarrel over a list of external rules. But we – like the Apostle Paul -- (see Rom. 7:7-8) must embrace God’s law with our hearts even as it reveals our sinful natures. Truly, the Tenth Commandment internalizes all the other nine commandments, guiding us to rest in our God-ordained station. We must trust God completely in all circumstances, and submit our desires completely to his sovereign rule. Jesus displayed such faith as he exercised faith in the Garden of Gethsemane, allowing the Father to reign supreme!

I. The Tenth Commandment: The _____ of all the others.

- 1) “A _____ person is someone with a severe craving for the possessions or life circumstances of another. I feel THAT is what will satisfy me and make me happy!”
- 2) This commandment forbids no _____, but requires a disposition of _____.
- 3) The Apostle described the required duty as _____ (Phil. 4:11).
- 4) Will you let God _____ and give him _____ to the ‘control center’ of life?

II. The Tenth Commandment: The _____ of our _____-based lives.

- 1) We craft worlds where God is on the _____. God is _____ and so are we.
- 2) Commandment #8 ties our hands, #9 ties our tongues, #10 ties our _____.
- 3) This commandment reveals the true _____ of our hearts (Rom. 7).
- 4) Friend, let this command _____ your heart. Run to the _____ of Christ.

III. The Tenth Commandment: The _____ of the godly soul.

- 1) A _____ of God lets the commandments to _____ their souls.
- 2) A _____ of Jesus sees _____ to him in light of _____ him (Jn. 14:15).
- 3) A _____ saint will _____ Christ the source of true contentment.
- 4) A _____ person will _____ all the moral law under this _____ head.
