

“City Of Confusion To City Of Praise”

Letting God’s Word Carry Us From Frustration To Faith

Psalm 6 (449); Psalm 54 (475); Psalm 116 (510)

Christian Pilgrims have departed from one City and are headed to another, more glorious City. This is why we need God’s Psalter, which again and again carries us from the City of Confusion to the City of Praise. As believers, we no longer dwell in Confusion, though its stench still cling to us. Whether facing depression (Ps. 6), betrayal (Ps. 54), or distress (Ps. 116), Christians can run to the Psalter and find a Psalm suited to their need. By faith let the Psalter carry you from the depths into the presence of Christ and his praise!
