1.* What does it mean that the shepherd prepares a table? How does that point us to Jesus?

2.What makes the Gospel a prepared table/feast?

3.How did both David and Jesus enjoy a table in the presence of his enemies?

4.* Why do shepherds anoint their sheep's head? How does that point us to Jesus?

5.What does it mean that Jesus anoints His people's head?

6.* What kind of cup did shepherds have with them to strengthen their sheep? How does that point us to Jesus' cup?

7.What are we to do when our cup is not overflowing, but empty?

Question for Self-Reflection

Is the Gospel a feast for you? Why, or why not?
