

“Blessed be God the Father”

Ephesians 1:3-6

Introduction:

Main Point: The Apostle Paul begins this epistle of grace by focusing our attention on the source of all blessings, that is the Triune God. We are greatly blessed due to the greatness of the blessedness of God. Then he moves on to reveal and revel in the blessings that each person of the Godhead lavishes upon the beloved in Christ.

I. Praise God from whom all blessings flow!

II. How vast are the blessings in Christ!

III. “To the praise of the glory of His grace”
