

ISAIAH

God's Word To Assyria, Philistia, and Moab Isaiah 14:24-16:14

Mac Williams, Pastor
September 13, 2015

1. In God's word to _____, His sovereign dominion is clearly displayed.

- a. As the wise sovereign, God has clear purposes and makes meaningful and certain _____.
- b. As the all-powerful sovereign, God's plans will surely come to _____ in spite of all opposition.
- c. This is an encouragement to His people that His Word can be _____.

2. In God's word to _____, His watchcare over His people is affirmed in spite of the enemies who seek to harm them.

- a. God's enemies are _____ against premature rejoicing when things seem to go their way.

- b. God's people are encouraged to remember that no matter how discouraging the outward circumstances may be, God is always preserving and guarding His _____.

3. In God's word to _____, the sorrow that is associated with those under His judgment is emphasized.

- a. There is great lament from those _____ judgment when they see their cities and homes destroyed.
- b. There is great lament from _____ on behalf of those who would not repent and are judged accordingly.
 - 1) It is in submission to the _____ as king that there is hope.
 - 2) Christians should feel a genuine _____ for those will not trust in Christ.