

JOB

Bildad's Third Speech and Job's Response

Job 25:1-26:14

1. The _____ of God.

a. God is the absolute _____ over all.

1) All of the holy _____ are in perfect and joyful submission to Him.

2) None can successfully _____ Him.

b. God's sovereignty extends to the realms of the _____.

"_____ separate spirits may be said to be before God: the saints are in His glorious presence, and the wicked in hell are in His dreadful presence; they are said to be tormented in the presence of the Lamb. (Rev. 14:10)" - Jonathan Edwards

c. God is sovereign over His _____.

1) The world is not _____-sustaining, the Lord continually upholds it.

2) God's creation is full of _____.

2. The _____ of man.

a. _____ is not capable of measuring up to what God requires of him.

b. Man is the highest of God's creation but before God he is like a _____.

c. This should cause us to be in _____ at what Jesus Christ did to save sinners.

"Let us therefore wonder at God's condescension in taking such worms as we are into covenant and communion with Himself, especially at the condescension of the Son of God, in emptying Himself so far as to say, 'I am a _____, and no man', Ps. 22:6." - Matthew Henry

Born August 17th, 1761

Died June 1834

A wretched, poor and helpless _____, on Thy kind arms I fall.
