

"The Future of Israel"

Romans 11

Paul summoned five witnesses in his case to prove that God still has a future for Israel. These witnesses demonstrate that Israel's rejection of Jesus is not total, but partial, and that Israel's partial rejection of Christ is not final, but temporary.

- I. The first witness: _____ (1)
- II. The second witness: _____ (2-10)
- III. The third witness: _____ (11-15)
- IV. The fourth witness: _____ (16-24)
- V. The fifth witness: _____ (25-36)
 - A. God's sovereign _____ (25)
 - B. God's absolute _____ (26-29)
 - C. God's generous _____ (30-32)
 - D. God's incomprehensible _____ (33-36)

Do I _____? Can I _____?

"The Future of Israel"

Romans 11

Paul summoned five witnesses in his case to prove that God still has a future for Israel. These witnesses demonstrate that Israel's rejection of Jesus is not total, but partial, and that Israel's partial rejection of Christ is not final, but temporary.

- I. The first witness: _____ (1)
- II. The second witness: _____ (2-10)
- III. The third witness: _____ (11-15)
- IV. The fourth witness: _____ (16-24)
- V. The fifth witness: _____ (25-36)
 - A. God's sovereign _____ (25)
 - B. God's absolute _____ (26-29)
 - C. God's generous _____ (30-32)
 - D. God's incomprehensible _____ (33-36)

Do I _____? Can I _____?