All I Have Is Christ

1. I once was lost in dark - est night,
 2. But as I ran my hell - bound race,
 3. Now, Lord, I would be Yours a - lone,

Yet thought I knew the way.
 In - dif - fe - rent to the cost,
 And live so all might see

The sin that prom - ised joy and life
 You looked up - on my help - less state
 The strength to fol - low Your com - mands

Had led me to the grave.
 And led me to the cross.
 Could nev - er come from me.

I had no hope that You would own
 And I be - held God's love dis - played,
 Oh Fa - ther, use my ran - somed life

A re - bel to Your will.
 You suf - fered in my place.
 In an - y way You choose,

And if You had not loved me first,
 You bore the wrath re - served for me,
 And let my song for - ev - er be

I would re - fuse You still.
 Now all I know is grace.
 My on - ly boast is You.

Refrain
 Hal - le - lu - jah! All I have is Christ.

Hal - le - lu - jah! Je - sus is my life.

Our God, Our Help in Ages Past

1. O God, our help in ages past,
 2. Under the shadow of your throne
 3. Before the hills in order stood
 4. A thousand ages in your sight our hope for years to come, our shelter from the your saints have dwelt secure; sufficient is your or earth received its frame, from everlasting are like an evening gone, short as the watch that stormy blast, and our eternal home:

 arm alone, and our defense is sure.
 you are God, to endless years the same.
 ends the night before the rising sun.

5. Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
 soon bears us all away;
 we fly forgotten, as a dream
 dies at the opening day.

6. O God, our help in ages past,
 our hope for years to come,
 still be our guard while troubles last,
 and our eternal home!

The Reading of the Law
Deut. 5:8-10; Num. 14:18-19; Judg. 2:19

“You shall not make for yourself a carved image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is on the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth. You shall not bow down to them or serve them; for I the Lord your God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children to the third and fourth generation of those who hate me, but showing steadfast love to thousands of those who love me and keep my commandments.”

“The Lord is slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love, forgiving iniquity and transgression, but he will by no means clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children, to the third and the fourth generation. Please pardon the iniquity of this people, according to the greatness of your steadfast love, just as you have forgiven this people, from Egypt until now.”

“But whenever the judge died, they turned back and were more corrupt than their fathers, going after other gods, serving them and bowing down to them. They did not drop any of their practices or their stubborn ways.”

The Confession of Sin
Daniel 9:18

O my God, incline your ear and hear. Open your eyes and see our desolations, and the city that is called by your name. For we do not present our pleas before you because of our righteousness, but because of your great mercy.

The Gospel Promise
Galatians 3:21-22

Is the law then contrary to the promises of God? Certainly not! For if a law had been given that could give life, then righteousness would indeed be by the law. But the Scripture imprisoned everything under sin, so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.

The Response of Thanksgiving
1 Chronicles 16:34

Oh give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; for his steadfast love endures forever!
