

Practical Religion
LESSON 13: HEIRS OF GOD

We are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ. (Ro. 8:16, 17)

I. Introduction: The Best Inheritance

- a. The inheritance of Christ is the only inheritance really worth having.
- b. The inheritance of Christ is the only inheritance that is kept forever.
- c. The inheritance of Christ is the only inheritance within everyone's reach.

II. Sons of God: The Heirs' Relationship to God as Father

- a. As an heir, a true son possesses an indelible claim on all the rights and privileges granted and assured by his father based on an indissoluble relationship no conduct or circumstance can void.
  - i. The father offers his son all the affection, correction, provision, protection, guidance, and education he is pleased and able to give for no other reason than, "He is my son."
  - ii. The son receives from his father with confidence, comfort, and humility for no other reason than, "He is my father."
- b. Sinners cannot become heirs except by the true sonship of Jesus Christ.
  - i. We have no natural claim on either God or the inheritance of Christ. (Ep. 2:3, 8; 1 Jn. 3:10)
  - ii. The Gospel offers a true spiritual claim on the inheritance of Christ. (Jn. 1:12; Ga. 3:26; 1 Jn. 1:3; Ro. 8:17)
- c. Though all mankind are children of God generally, only by grace are we sons truly.
  - i. True, God is the Creator of all. (Ac. 17:28; Jb. 1:6)
  - ii. True, God is good to all. (Ps. 145:9; Ezk. 18:32)
  - iii. But God is a true Father only by faith in the true son, Jesus Christ. (Ac. 4:12; 1 Ti. 2:5)
  - iv. Thus, no one is a true son of God until he has faith in Jesus Christ. (Ga. 3:26)
  - v. Therefore, every true son of God has indelible rights and privileges in Christ. (1 Jn. 3:1)

II. If Children, then Heirs: The Spiritual Distinctives of the Heirs of God

- a. The heirs of God are all led by his Spirit. They are led under his teaching, away from sin, self-righteousness, and folly toward Christ by the Word, with the Word, in the Word. (Ro. 8:14)
- b. The heirs of God all sense their adoption in the Spirit. Some feel it more clearly than others, some hardly at all. All have been delivered from slavish fear, all may have peace and confidence of soul, and all may draw near freely, boldly before the presence of God the Father. (Ro. 8:15)
- c. The heirs of God all have the witness of the Spirit in their hearts. The Spirit who inhabits eternity gives his personal reassurance. Because the Spirit of Christ prays for us, the true heirs will never trade Christ. (Ro. 8:16; cf. 2 Co. 1:22; Lk. 22:32)
- d. The heirs of God all participate in Christ's suffering. Even as Christ learned obedience through what he suffered, it has been granted to us also not only to believe in him, but also to deny ourselves, take up our cross daily, and follow him, suffering both for him and with him. (Ro. 8:17; cf. Hb. 5:8; Ph. 1:29; Mk. 8:34; Lk. 14:27)

III. Heirs with Christ: The Unrivaled Inheritance of the Heirs

- a. As sons of God, we are heirs of something not yet revealed (1 Jn. 3:2). As heirs of God, we are heirs of something glorious beyond imagining (Ep. 3:20). As joint heirs with Christ, we are heirs of a share in his majesty and glory (Ro. 8:17).
- b. In our inheritance, there will be no corruption, no devil, no curse of sin, no sorrow, no tears, no sickness, no death—all absent from the saints' inheritance!
- c. But the inheritance is not mainly what is absent from it, but the blessing of God in it. (Ps. 23:5-7)
  - i. What sweet and comforting knowledge we have now will be perfected in glory (1 Co. 13:12).
  - ii. What blessed and fortifying holiness we have now will be perfected in glory. (Ep. 5:27)
  - iii. What pleasant and refreshing rest we have now will be perfected in glory. (Hb. 4:9)
  - iv. What meaningful and humble service we have now will be perfected in glory. (Rv. 7:15)
  - v. What good and happy satisfaction we have now will be perfected in glory. (Ps. 17:15)
  - vi. What joyful and inspiring communion with the saints we have now will be perfected in glory. (Mt. 13:41; 24:31)
  - vii. But nothing can compare to the perfected communion we shall have with Christ! (1 Th. 4:17)

Concluding Applications: The Inheritance Now in View of Eternity

- I. Our inheritance in Christ gives us certain comforts today.
  - a. As sons of God, go to the Father in prayer to claim the inheritance he promises in Christ.
  - b. As heirs of God, go to Christ in the Word to seek the sensible leading of the Holy Spirit.
  - c. As heirs with Christ, go with the Spirit into the world ready to suffer for the sake of the Gospel.
- II. Our inheritance in Christ gives us solid joys for tomorrow.
  - a. As sons of God, remember that nothing compares with the inheritance we have from our Father.
  - b. As heirs of God, search the Scriptures for visions of Christ, our unfading, incorruptible inheritance.
  - c. As heirs with Christ, strive with the Holy Spirit for your inheritance in the imitation of Christ.