

Growing Our Devotion to Fellowship

1. What is fellowship?
2. What is the foundation of fellowship?
3. What does the Bible teach about our real fellowship with one another (what we “share in”)?
 - a. We are one.
 - b. We have been added together.
 - c. We are family.
 - d. We are the body of Christ.
 - e. We are God’s building.
4. What does the Bible teach about the actions that support that fellowship (how we “share with”)?
 - a. We share meals
 - b. We share material things
 - c. We share spiritual things
 - d. We share the desire to see others come follow Jesus and the calling to make disciples of Jesus.
 - e. We share in our suffering.

We share the desire to see others come follow Jesus and the calling to make disciples of Jesus.

We share in our suffering.

Hebrews 13:3 Remember those who are in prison, as though in prison with them, and those who are mistreated, since you also are in the body.

2 Cor. 1:7

“Many strategists within the church are asking for paradigm shifts in our organizational life. But the paradigms they recommend are primarily those found in the business world. We should rather be searching the Scriptures with an open mind, uncluttered by preconceived notions, to see whether we have lost some of its teachings on community life.” (Fernando, A. (1998). Acts. Grand Rapids, MI: Zondervan Publishing House.)

Practical Ideas:

1. Look at your _____.
2. Look at your _____ and _____.
3. Look at your _____.
4. Look at your _____ _____ relationships.
5. _____.
6. Are you praying for others? A Call to Prayer (<http://bit.ly/2xRCYoj>) is a sermon that will help jumpstart your prayers for others. Be sure to download the "Prayer for All the Saints" booklet.
7. Are you asking others what you can pray for?
8. View _____ prayer as an essential skill in which you want to keep growing and developing.
9. View one-to-one Bible reading, small group Bible study, sermon discussion, and sharing from your personal reading as essential skills in which you want to keep growing and developing.
10. _____ yourself to fellowship!

Growing Our Devotion to Fellowship

1. What is fellowship?
2. What is the foundation of fellowship?
3. What does the Bible teach about our real fellowship with one another (what we “share in”)?
 - a. We are one.
 - b. We have been added together.
 - c. We are family.
 - d. We are the body of Christ.
 - e. We are God’s building.
4. What does the Bible teach about the actions that support that fellowship (how we “share with”)?
 - a. We share meals
 - b. We share material things
 - c. We share spiritual things
 - d. We share the desire to see others come follow Jesus and the calling to make disciples of Jesus.
 - e. We share in our suffering.

We share the desire to see others come follow Jesus and the calling to make disciples of Jesus.

We share in our suffering.

Hebrews 13:3 Remember those who are in prison, as though in prison with them, and those who are mistreated, since you also are in the body.

2 Cor. 1:7

“Many strategists within the church are asking for paradigm shifts in our organizational life. But the paradigms they recommend are primarily those found in the business world. We should rather be searching the Scriptures with an open mind, uncluttered by preconceived notions, to see whether we have lost some of its teachings on community life.” (Fernando, A. (1998). Acts. Grand Rapids, MI: Zondervan Publishing House.)

Practical Ideas:

1. Look at your _____.
2. Look at your _____ and _____.
3. Look at your _____.
4. Look at your _____ relationships.
5. _____.
6. Are you praying for others? A Call to Prayer (<http://bit.ly/2xRCYoj>) is a sermon that will help jumpstart your prayers for others. Be sure to download the "Prayer for All the Saints" booklet.
7. Are you asking others what you can pray for?
8. View _____ prayer as an essential skill in which you want to keep growing and developing.
9. View one-to-one Bible reading, small group Bible study, sermon discussion, and sharing from your personal reading as essential skills in which you want to keep growing and developing.
10. _____ yourself to fellowship!