FALL COMMUNION SEASON

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered in the congregation today in the morning service. Dr. David Kranendonk, Free Reformed minister and professor at PRTS, will be our guest minister. We circulated an email outlining all the details. Any visitors need to meet with a member of the session before being admitted to the Table. We will collect a benevolent care offering today, which the deacons use for those in financial need.

PRESBYTERY FAST DAY

In keeping with FCC practice, our Presbytery appointed a Fast Day for October 11, in anticipation of the ordination and induction of Mr. Logan Shelton as minister of Auburn-Opelika (Acts 13:3; 14:23; etc.).

CATECHISM CLASS

At the Catechism Class on Oct. 8, Pastor will cover GPC reception of visitors and other related, practical matters. All the ushers are requested to be present for the details connected to their responsibilities.

Our annual GPC fall picnic is scheduled to be held at the home of Mark and Amy Cochran on October 28, the Lord willing.

We encourage each one to quietly prepare his heart for worship before the beginning of each worship service, as this befits the glory of the God with whom we meet.

There is a break following the Morning Worship Service where a meal is served. We cordially invite our visitors to join us in this opportunity for Christian fellowship and spiritual conversation.

Offerings are collected on the literature table.

OUR CHURCH

We are a congregation of the Free Church of Scotland (Continuing), which has a presbytery in North America. The Free Church traces its historical roots back to the Protestant Reformation in Scotland, which began in 1560. The same biblical truths and spiritual identity have been maintained to the present day. Our doctrinal standards are the original 17th century version of the Westminster Confession of Faith, the Westminster Larger Catechism and the Westminster Shorter Catechism. Further detailed information about our doctrine, worship, government, and practice is available on the book table and in the Church library.
