Isaiah 56:9-57:21

PASTOR'S PRAYER

Almighty God, you alone are just and righteous. You are our God of steadfast love and faithfulness. Lord, grant us by the power of your Spirit this morning, faith and repentance that we might turn from our hearts of unrighteous intent and take refuge in your promised peace. LORD, build up, build up, prepare the way, remove every obstruction from our way this morning that we might be healed, comforted and restored and so that we might dwell with you and know your peace and rest in this perverse and wicked generation. We ask these things in the name of our Suffering Servant and Savior, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen & Amen.

OUTLINE

1. The Leader's Injustice (56:9-12)
2. The People's Unrighteousness (57:1-13)
3. God's Promised Peace (57:14-21)

Central Textual Truth

Central Sermon Aim

I want SGBC to take refuge in Christ as we actively wait for His return.
