

A Call to Praise our Creator, Preserver, and Protector

Psalm 33

March 4, 2018

All nature sings the praise of its creator.

How would a rock or a star rebel against their maker?

What are the only creatures that rebel against their maker?

A Call to Fervent Praise (v 1-3)

Who alone can praise God?

Worshippers must be made righteous, joyous; then worship with skill.

Why should we bow down and worship?

Because His Character is revealed in his word and works. (v 4-5)

God is true to his character.

He loves righteousness and justice: Look at his word and his works.

What is loving kindness? (Hesed)

Because He created and controls all things. (v 6-9)

By His Word all things were created.

Even the water obeys (Natural things)

Every created thing ought to praise the Lord

Because His Counsel stands, He rules over the nations (v 10-12)

Why is there a need to call men to worship?

Can sinful men thwart the will and counsel of God?

God Frustrates the rebellious counsel of the Nations

God's Counsel Stands (Providence) v 11

Because He sees and understand us (v 13-15)

Because man is not delivered by his own strength (v 16-17)

Because man is delivered by the loving kindness of the Lord (v 18-19)

Therefore, we will; wait for him, rejoice in him, trust in him, pray to him.
